transcosmos Korea donates computers to the “Incheon Differently Abled Federation” of Republic of Korea

Promotes regional community service by helping IT activities through the donation of computers

transcosmos Korea, Inc. (Headquarter: Seoul, Republic of Korea; President and COO: Kwon Sang-chuel; transcosmos Korea), a business process outsourcing provider in the Republic of Korea and a subsidiary of transcosmos inc. (Headquarters: Tokyo, Japan; President and COO: Masataka Okuda), donated 30 million won worth of computers for office and educational use to organizations for the disabled including “Incheon Differently Abled Federation” to support organizations for disabled in the Republic of Korea.

This time a donation event took place at the Incheon Social Welfare Facility on April 9, 2019. transcosmos Korea has donated 150 computers to 22 different organizations for the disabled including Incheon Differently Abled Federation.

“We would like to thank transcosmos Korea for the generous donation of computers,” said Mr. Jung Young Gi, chairman of Incheon Differently Abled Federation. “We will not only use the donated computers for the members of our federation, but also use them for improving the working and educational environment of the Incheon Metropolitan City. Thank you very much again.”

transcosmos Korea is increasing its charitable donations and has already decided to donate another 50 computers to the organizations other than those 22 organizations to which the company made the donation. In addition, transcosmos Korea employees engage in community services on a regular basis and in various activities for expanding employment opportunities for persons with disabilities. As transcosmos Korea’s business continues to expand and grow, the company will further promote its contribution to local communities as its corporate social responsibility.
