transcosmos donates to Wakayama Prefecture via the corporate furusato nozei, receives the Medal of Dark Blue Ribbon and a certificate of appreciation

In FY2026, donates to the Create a Family-Friendly Environment/Place for Children Project and

transcosmos today announced it donated to Wakayama Prefecture through the corporate version of furusato nozei, Japan's hometown tax donation program. On July 28, 2026, transcosmos received the Medal of Dark Blue Ribbon in recognition of its fiscal year 2025 donation and a certificate of appreciation for its fiscal year 2026 donation at a ceremony held at the Wakayama Prefectural Government Office.

transcosmos established Wakayama Branch Office in 1974. Since then, the company has been providing BPO services that support corporate back-office operations as well as CX services, including contact centers.

Last year, transcosmos made a donation in support of Wakayama Prefecture's Wakayama Digital Creative Center Project and Wakayama Create a Child-Centered Society Project. This year, the company continued its support by making a donation to the Wakayama Digital Creative Center Project and the Create a Family-Friendly Environment/Place for Children Project.

By supporting Wakayama Prefecture's digital creative and parenting-related projects and addressing social challenges, transcosmos aims to expand its social impact as a business and maximize the well-being of society as a whole. As a company committed to local communities, transcosmos will continue to contribute to the creation of a sustainable society and environment through regional revitalization and environmental initiatives.
