How to Request the Purchase or Sale of Shares Constituting Less Than One Unit

The Company employs a system for requesting the purchase of shares constituting less than one unit. If you currently hold shares constituting less than one unit (shares less than 100 shares), you can request the Company to sell to you the number of shares which, when added to your present shareholdings, will bring your shareholdings up to one unit of shares (100 shares).

Or you can request the Company to buy your shares constituting less than one unit.

Please contact your securities company (the account manager) to obtain details. If you wish to request the Company to sell you shares to bring your shareholdings up to one unit of shares or to buy your shares constituting less than one unit for shares recorded in a special account, please contact Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Bank, Limited below, which is the account manager for special accounts.
